Sir:

Applicant submitted an amendment on September 1, 2006 in the above noted matter in response to a non final action. The Office subsequently indicated that amendment was non-compliant for inclusion in the claims portion of informational statements that have been previously included in hundreds of amendments without objection. Nevertheless, the amendment has been rewritten withdrawing all such material from the claims section.

Consequently, entry of the accompanying amendment as modified is earnestly requested.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any
